IN COUNTRY LANES.

O country lanes! white-studded with bloom, Where wild things nestle, shy and sweet, And all your waving grasses laugh And give before my eager feet— Could I but dwell with you, Letting the old, mad world rush by, And just be glad of wind and sun, Of rocking nest and brooding skyl!

How often, in the crowded street, I dream of you, sweet country lane, And feel, once more, your soft breeze soothe My weary heart and tired brain; Always above the city's din, Above the clink of yellow gold, I hear a wild-bird's ringing note, I catch the scent of fever-stricken mold!

Your grasses kiss my fevered cheek, Your hawthorns drop her fragrant rain, I am a child once more, and dream That Heaven hides here, O flower-starred lane!

Unc' Shucks and the Witches.

By E. E. Garnett.

"PEOPLE are so tired of charity concerts and teas and borers in general," Sue complained, lugubriously.

"But even tired people must help each other," Mae insisted. "Let us ask Mrs. Brelle to suggest something."

The pretty widow was in a hammock, with Barnes in chatting distance on the piazza steps, and she did not welcome interruption.

"Will you?" called Joe, upon her silence.

"Will I what?" pouting.

"Help us to help Unc' Shucks?"

"And who," only half hiding a yawn, "is he?"

"He is old and poor and blind," explained Mae, making her climax with a most sweet compassion.

"And black," said a practical Louise, "as the ace of spades."

The pretty widow looked bewitchingly reproachful. "No country poorhouse," she murmured.

A rather chilled silence fell upon the piazza group. Mae's sensitive face flushed. Barnes went up the steps to her side.

such a face frightened and white, but the pretty widow smiled and compassed it.

"You must forgive me, love, for hinting that your impulsive ways are liable to be misinterpreted."

"I beg pardon," growing attentive with a start. "What did you say?"

"Mr. Barnes is a man of the world," gently, accustomed to a flirtation as to his wine at dinner. He—

"Wait!" with unexpected dignity. "I do not care to hear you speak of Mr. Barnes. But of me—you were saying something of me?"

"Well," rising with an angry flush, "you are refusing a kindness. One would think that you mean—the way you look."

"The way I look?"

"My dear child," over a shoulder as she went to the door, "you look up at him as if you were kneeling before a shrine."

In those next days Barnes could not guess what the trouble was—how should he?—but he was quick to realize that Mae shunned him and, when she could not, was nervous and dumb and pale. Meeting her one morning in the shady lane that led toward the links, the look on her face grew suddenly unendurable to him.

"Mae," he cried, "what have I done? Are you offended with me?"

"No," cried Mae, startled and miserable. "No, of course not."

"Then why do you treat me like this?"

"This?" faltered Mae; then looking at him she suddenly flushed and with tears springing hurried away.

Passing on, puzzled and distressed, around a clump of laurel, he came upon the pretty widow; she had heard.

"I am sorry," she said; "oh, I wish I could help." Then, hesitatingly, "Perhaps it would be best to tell you."

"To tell me what?" sternly.

"Joe is jealous of you; see?"

"Joe? Joe?"

"You never guessed? Why, it is an old affair, since school days and pin-fires."

"Joe?"

"He has been scolding the poor child, I suppose, and she is afraid to be seen with you; or, perhaps," gently, "she doesn't want to hurt you."

spring.

"Um," grunted Shucks, and filled his pipe, the smile still broad on his face.

Presently the pretty widow came to him.

"Have you seen," she began, anxiously. "I mean heard, anything of Mr. Barnes?"

"Marse Barnes gone on ter de links," shamelessly, "with Miss Sue, marm. Yes, marm."

But he shook his grizzled head as she hurried away. "Dat how de cat jump," he mumbled. "Um. Old Shucks gwine feel a pain in his conscience 'bout dat falsifyin' an' dat barrel o' fine flour, um—um—who dar? Marse Joe? Yo' late at de links, sar."

"I am not going to the links, Unc' Shucks. I am hanging about with my gun. Miss Mae is anxious about your chickens; she says a screech owl gets one every night."

"Dat he does, dat he does," indignantly; "an' I makes no doubt he's nappin' up one ob dem trees dis minute, dreamin' 'bout supper time, but," sotto voce, "yo' watin' shot firin' fer Miss Mae, chile, yo' shorely is."

Joe, all unconscious of this, went peering keenly along the edge of the wood, and the old man listened, his mind divided between chuckles for the spring and conscience-stricken grunts for the wood.

"Ah! here he is!" came triumphantly at last.

"Hitt 'im 'fore he holler, Marse Joe!" Shucks advised, eagerly. "De ain't no luck in his screech."

So Joe took the owl silent and secured happy fortune to the donation party; at least that was the old man's verdict, but he shook his head dubiously when he considered Joe's share of it.

"Dat de biggest sort er luck," he grunted, philosophically, "bleeged er dem somewhar."—Springfield Republican.

CYCLING ROUTES.

Will All Lead to Buffalo Next Summer.

For the accommodation of the large number of cyclists who contemplate touring awhet to Buffalo and the Pan-American Exposition and Niagara Falls next summer a series of "trunk line" cycling routes is being compiled. They will probably be as follows:

1. New York and Albany to Buffalo (via the Hudson River, the valley of the Mohawk and the cycle paths of Central and Western New York).
2. New York to Buffalo (via the Delaware Water Gap, Scranton, Elmira, Corning and the cycle paths of the Southern tier of counties).
3. Boston and New England points to Buffalo (connecting with Route No. 1 at Albany).
4. Boston and New England points to Buffalo (via Providence, New London, steamboat to Greenport, Long Island; cycle paths of Suffolk county to Brookline, connecting with Route No. 1 or 2 at New York).
5. Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia to Buffalo (connecting with Route No. 2 at the Delaware Water Gap or Scranton).
6. St. Louis and Chicago to Buffalo (via Toledo, Cleveland and Erie). The road from Erie to Buffalo along the south shore of Lake Erie, through the Grape Belt, has been called the finest 100 mile straightaway in America.
7. Chicago and Milwaukee to Buffalo (via steamboat across Lake Michigan to Grand Haven, Detroit, through Canada, Niagara Falls).
8. Cincinnati to Buffalo (connecting with Route No. 6 at Cleveland).

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came thro' his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters, which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50 cents at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores.

Union County Farmer Bankrupt.

George Franklin Powell, of Union county, filed a petition in bankruptcy at Owensboro. His liabilities are $31,349 and his assets $19,165. He owes Sylvester Pike, of Uniontown, $20,140. Of his debts, $21,425 is secured. Powell owns land worth $14,915 and farming implements, valued at $3,742. He is one of the largest farmers of Union county.

Worked Both States.

Walter Garrett was arrested at Owensboro on Tuesday night, last week, by the sheriff of Allen county, on indictments charging him with selling whisky without license, and taken to Scottsville, the county seat of Allen county. The sheriff says that Garrett lives on the line between Kentucky and Tennessee, and sold whisky in both states. When one set of officers would get after him he would cross the line into the other state. He is an old man and a cripple.

THURSDAY, October 31, 1901.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce ELLIOTT ROSE, of Stillwater, as a candidate for the office of Assessor, subject only to the will of the people as expressed at the polls on Tuesday, November 5, 1901.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Senator—34th District,
C. D. SUBLETT.

For Representative—91st District,
JESSE P. MORRIS,
of Morgan County.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

For Judge—J. W. CONGLETON.
For Attorney—C. C. FULKS.
For Clerk—W. S. TUTT.
For Sheriff—T. F. STAMPER.
For Supt. Schools—J. W. TAULBEE.
For Jailor—J. B. LITTLE.
For Assessor—S. N. HOBBS.
For Coroner—FRANK SAMPLES.
Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

GEORGE HAULSEY, who is the republican candidate for county judge, claims that he is not partisan in politics, but four years ago he tried to disfranchise all the voters of our county by having the vote of the county thrown out on the plea that the ballots were tissue. That he failed was not his fault. Now what constitutes partisanship if an act of that kind does not? Violent and passionate devotion to a party is defined as the meaning of partisan, and surely he was both violent and passionate even to conceive the idea of disfranchising his neighbors, to say nothing of trying to carry it out. Is it safe to put a man in office who is so rabid that he would rob his neighbor of his franchise? It is for you to answer the question, and next Tuesday is the time to do it.

JOHN D. ROSE is the nominee of the democratic party for magistrate in this district, and is the present incumbent. He points with pride to his past official record and thinks it is prima facie evidence of his future career if again honored with election. He says he has always been painstaking in affairs of the people, and taking a retrospective review can see no place where he has been remiss in duty. He solicits the suffrage of his constituents to help him retain the office, now that he has become proficient in it, and promises in that event to render entire satisfaction.

The affidavits which appear in our paper today come under the head of paid matter, and as such are published. A newspaper published for the whole people must needs publish what is demanded so long as it comports with our conditions.

Pile-ine Cures Piles!
Money refunded if it ever fails.

DEMOCRATS, this is the last appeal we can make you, and we want to say: Don't go after strange gods; stick to your puncheon. To influence you the republicans will advance any promise. The devil, ever on hand to turn you from the righteous way, has his followers in the republican ranks, and they are full of flattery to your face while behind your back they will laugh in their sleeves at your softness provided they succeed in gulling you. Don't be deceived.

Don't allow your devotion to the county democrats to distract your mind from our state senator and representative. A United States senator is to be elected, and our failure to send Sublett and Morris, or either of them to Frankfort might result in the return of Deboe or some republican not even so good to that august body. For the honor of Kentucky a democrat should be returned.

Now that the county is in a healthy financial condition, it is the purpose of the republicans to elect the county judge and claim the credit. Democratic officials have made this healthy condition and your duty is to see that it shall continue in the family.

This precinct has heretofore been the banner precinct of the county and we hope to see it maintain its prestige on Tuesday next. It will never do to lower our colors to any rival precinct. But we must poll every democrat to do it.

ELECTIONS will be held in eight or nine states next Tuesday, but even in these, there seems to be little or no interest in the campaign. This is certainly an off year in every respect.

THE democratic nominees, remember, will address voters of Hazel Green precinct here on Saturday at 1 o'clock p.m. and every voter in the precinct should turn out to hear them.

VOTE the democratic ticket and inherit happiness is good advice that you should heed.

Frank Trimble of Memphis has been in Iowa for a few days in the interest of southern immigration.

W. S. O'Hair has bought and sold over 300 mules per month for the past five months. His stables at Paris, Ill., will accommodate 100 head, and his business extends over several states.

One of your correspondents wishes to know why Czolgosz was not allowed to plead guilty to the assassination of the president. The law of New York does not allow a plea of guilty entered to a charge of murder or other capital offense.

C. M. Phelps, Forestdale, Vt., says his child was completely cured of a bad case of eczema by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of all counterfeits. It instantly relieves piles.

A short time since we noted the fact that our town authorities had passed an ordinance to replace the wooden bridges with stone culverts, and commended their wisdom. But for some reason the work was delayed until now active preparations in getting the rock to the places where it is to be used indicates that we will soon have the culverts.

DANIEL PELFREY, OF CAMPTON, Calls Our Correspondent at That Place to Account, and In Our Behalf An Explanation.

CAMPTON, Ky., Oct. 28, 1901. Spencer Cooper, Editor HERALD, Hazel Green, Ky.: SIR:—I noticed in THE HERALD of last week, from this place, an article signed Goo-Goo Eyes, stating that I secured marriage license and sped away into the country to claim my bride, but when I arrived at my destination, she had already married another fellow. I want to say in reply that a blacker lie never appeared in print; and if all liars are to have their part in the regions where there is no snow to shovel, the writer of said article, will surely stand a splendid chance of going there. Everybody in this community knows it to be a lie, but people away from here would take it to be true, and I don't like to have my reputation dragged in the mire and scattered broadcast across the continent; I don't want my motherless children to be disgraced by my name having been connected as it was. The man who wrote said article is afraid to come to my face and own it; but like the coward that he is, he sneaks away and hides his face in shame; as he walks the streets he can not look an honest man in the face.

Young man, sailing under the non de plume of Goo-Goo Eyes, if your own mother was dead, would you like for some low-down, de-bassed wretch, to associate your father's name with the low and vile? If you have the least spark of manhood in your make-up, you would not, but I am made to believe you are undeserving to be called man.

Mr. Editor, such publications will injure the reputation of your paper. The people over here, in general, condemn such publications, of course I do not blame you; but I call upon your correspondent for an explanation in the next issue of THE HERALD. I have lived among the good people of this county all my life, and I am proud that I was born and reared amid the vine clad hills and singing streams of old Wolfe. I have always tried to live an honorable, upright life; have always treated everybody right, and did not know that I had an enemy in the world, and I hope that the good people of Wolfe county, among whom I have been reared, will not believe me guilty of what that wretch said I was. Among these beautiful hills I was born and among them I hope to be buried when my time on earth is up, and I want to live so that in the years to come, the traveler as he passes by my grave, can say: "There lies an honest man." Respectfully,

DANIEL PELFREY.

CZOLGOSZ PUT TO DEATH!

AND HIS BODY DESTROYED!

He Died Unrepentant, Proud of His Deed, Cursing Religion. Details of Electrocution.

Associated Press.]

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Just 53 days from the commission of his crime and 45 days from the death of his victim, Leon F. Czolgosz paid the penalty imposed by law. At 7:12½ o'clock on Tuesday morning a current 1,700 volts strong was sent through his body. At 7:15 the deadly current was turned off and at 7:17 the assassin was pronounced dead.

He died as he had lived since his awful deed: sullen, unrepentant.

"I am not sorry for my crime" was his last reference to the treacherous shot which took the life of the nation's chief executive.

"Damn the priests; damn religion," were his final answers to the inquiry whether or not he desired the offices of the church and, in death, the comfort of religion.

After an autopsy the remains were put in a coffin, a carboy of acid was poured over them, a grave in the prison cemetery was closed over them and guards took up positions around the fresh-turned clay, and ere midnight only dust remained of what was mortal of President McKinley's murderer.

When told that he could not talk to a crowd he said that he would not talk at all.

Electricity killed him and the acid ate up the body.

Electric Belt on Trial.

ATTENTION, LOT-OWNERS

Sidewalks Must Now Be Built!

There are a number of sidewalks in the town only partly built, or badly built, which must be completed according to specifications on file in the Secretary's book. The making of building walks or pavements, has been kept quiet, pending the decision in the McNabb case in the Court of Appeals. Now, as it has been shown that the Board of Trustees has sole control of the building of sidewalks, it will be expected that all walks be put in first-class condition at once. There will be no "dilly-dallying" any more. Property owners who have been ordered to build sidewalks may call upon the clerk, C. B. Rice, for specifications.

ABOUT THE MONTHLY WORLD.
THE MONTHLY WORLD is a 32-page Magazine with colored cover. It is copiously illustrated with pen drawings and half-tone reproductions of photographs. The illustrations are the result of the best artistic skill, aided by all the latest printing press appliances, making a magazine unrivaled in the quality of its contents and the beauty of its appearance.

Each issue contains stories of romance, love, adventure, travel; stories of fiction and fact; stories of things quaint and curious, gathered together from all over the world; the results of scientific research, and interesting editorial reviews. It numbers among its contributors the leading literary men and women of the day. Its comic pages will present the work of famous comic artists. There will be funny paragraphs and pictures.

A feature each month will be the large first page portrait of the most famed man or woman of the moment in the public eye.

In collecting and preparing for publication the literary matter and art subjects for the Monthly World no expense is spared. It is one of the most attractive publications issued from the great city of New York. It furnishes high-class and widely varied entertainment to many thousand readers throughout North America.

Subscription 50 Cents a Year. But FREE to every new subscriber and all old subscribers who renew for THE HERALD before September 1, 1901. You get the value of $1.50 for only $1.00.

THE HERALD.
GREATER FAMILY WEEKLY

John Tester of Stillwater was here Wednesday.

John Tom Gevedon went to Trenton on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Kelse Nickell of Ezel paid our town a trading visit yesterday.

Jesse Swango of Stanton, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Southey Lacy of Lacy creek.

Grandma Pieratt is visiting her sons, Rev. Jim Tom and John H., and other relatives and friends here.

Preacher Pieratt has been under the weather for a few days past, but not sick enough to take to his bed.

John M. Rose is in receipt of the handsomest line of gent's ties ever brought to Hazel Green; prices low.

Miss Quilla, daughter of Henry Haddix, has a spell of fever, but Dr. Center is handling her case and she is improving.

AMERICA'S Greatest Medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it possesses unequalled curative powers and its record of cures is GREATEST.

Ed. Oney, who has been in Oklahoma for the past three months, returned home Saturday evening, and has accepted a position with H. F. Pieratt.

Mrs. Bettie Horton, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. N. Day of this place for a week past, left for her home at Camargo on Monday.

Rev. J. J. Dickey of Campton has our thanks for the loan of some devices and other necessary articles with which to print the ballots for our town.

Died, on Monday morning, a little daughter of Caleb Kash, of Maytown. She was about three years old and her death was the result of scarlet fever.

Newt Womack and wife of West Liberty spent Saturday night and Sunday with his brother-in-law, Charley Cecil of this place, and attended quarterly meeting.

The advertisement of Louis & Gus Straus will appear next week. The change did not reach us until too late for this issue, and next week we'll tell you more about it.

Mrs. Molly Haney, wife of William Haney of Lacy creek, died on Saturday night at 9 o'clock, aged 80 years. She leaves a husband and four children. The cause of her death is attributed to consumption.

The S. C. Casper Co., Winston-Salem, N. C., want all who drink liquor to try their "Mountain Dew," which they describe as a liquid joy. See their ad. in this paper, and if interested write them for prices, etc.

W. T. Wesson, Ghosolville, Va. druggist, writes: "Your One Minute Cough Cure gives perfect satisfaction. My customers say it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles."
H. F. PIERATT.

Mrs. Granville Evans of Campton, mother of our fellow-citizen, John H. Evans, visited Mr. Evans and family Sunday, and was accompanied by her grand daughter Miss Lillian Evans, who is teaching at Spruce Gap school beyond Campton.

John Pieratt, representing W. G. Barrett Saddlery Co., Louisville, sold H. F. Pieratt a nice bill of harness, etc., on Monday. This is not an ad. for the house, but as Mr. Pieratt thinks the firm will put in an ad. in THE HERALD to help him along, we give him this one free. When the ad. appears we will tell you a whole lot more about the house.

Wm. E. Bush of Lexington, brother of our better seven-eighths, broke bread with us from Saturday night until Monday morning, when he left for home. Save two trips here when his sister was very ill three or four years ago this was his first visit, and he intended to prolong it until Tuesday. But he learned while en route here Saturday that the O. & K. would tear out the temporary bridge across Kentucky river Tuesday to put in the new iron bridge. As traffic was suspended from that day forward he had to return Monday or be forced to drive to Torrent on Tuesday.

Corner-Stone Laying
On Saturday, Nov. 9, 1901, the corner-stone of the new Hazel Green academy building will be put in place. The ceremonies will begin at 1 o'clock p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend and witness the ceremonies. Representatives of the National and State C. W. B. M. will be present, as also representatives from schools, colleges and churches. Many prominent speakers will take part in the exercises.

Our man about town heard Monday that the L. & E. train from Lexington Saturday afternoon took to Jackson a man who was shot at Torrent, and who it was thought would die. He was shot in the head and hip, and our informant thought the other shot was in the breast. John Gibbs brought the news here and he said he was at Jackson Saturday night, and thought the wounded man was named Gillam.

"Circumstances Alter Cases."
In cases of dyspepsia, nervousness, catarrh, rheumatism, eruptions, etc., the circumstances may be altered by purifying and enriching the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it. Hood's Pills cure biliousness, headache.

A Lifetime Subscription.
MERCERVILLE, N. J., Oct. 18, 1901. Mr. Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.—As my subscription expires today, (18.) I herewith enclose you one dollar ($1.00) for which you will please send me the dear old HERALD one year, but put me down for a life-time subscriber, for I cannot do without THE HERALD. With best wishes for its success.
LIZZIE RODER, Mercerville, N. J.

Dr. Center on Wednesday of last week was called to Stillwater to see Leck Tolson, who had sawed three fingers off the right hand at the knuckle joint. He amputated the fingers near the palm of the hand, and was forced to make a flap from the back part of the fingers. On Monday he dressed them for the first time and found them healing nicely.

George Frisby accidentally shot himself with a pistol one night about a month ago, the 44 calibre ball lodging in his ankle. On Sunday night last Dr. Ben Nickell sent here for some chloroform, and the young man who came after it said that Dr. Ben and Dr. Taulbee would extract the ball, which was very painful.

Do you want a business education? If so, write Prof. B. B. Jones, Lexington, or come to this office and receive a scholarship. We can save you $10.

Sam Wilson has just finished the painting on John Davis' residence, inside and out. The body is a rich cream, trimmed with motion.

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man, woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. It will surprise you. SCOTT'S EMULSION, Chemists, 445 Pearl Street, New York. Price 45c. and $1.00; all druggists.

THE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION
Holds an Instructive and Interesting Session at This Place.

The Teachers' Association convened at this place Friday, the 25th of October, at 10:30 a. m. Only ten of the twenty-four teachers whose names were enrolled for this work being present, viz: Misses Ava Swango, Bertha Sample, Faley Long, Stella Hurst, S. H. Nickell, Samuel Kash, O. H. Swango, Asa Rose, Mrs. Alice Amyx, Logan Shockey.

Those present holding certificates were, viz: Misses Monta Crowe, Nora Crowe, Lula Evans, S. P. Rainey, Geo. Amyx. Honorary members, viz: Miss Davenport, Prof. J. H. Blankenship, Noah Cisco.

The house was called to order by Vice-President, Prof. Wm. H. Cord, who gave a brief talk explaining the purpose of the teachers' association, and the program as follows:

1. "Opening exercises of school."
 2. "Daily program."
 3. "Closing exercises."
 4. "Special exercises."
 5. "Successes or failure from new books."
 6. "Teacher in relation to pupil:"
 - (a) In school room.
 - (b) On play ground.
 - (c) On special occasions.
 - (d) In the community."
 7. "Teacher in history:"
 - (a) With text books.
 - (b) With other books.
 - (c) With special books.
 8. Miscellaneous matters.
- Adjourned until 1:15 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Introductory remarks by Prof. Cord touching upon the object of a Teachers' Association and the benefits to be derived from it.

"Opening Exercises of School" discussed by S. H. Nickell and Sam Kash, followed by Miss Bertha Sample, who advocated devotional exercises as the best method of opening school; followed by Prof. Cord whose experience has proved that some special exercise should precede the regular routine of school work as it requires some minutes for the pupil to concentrate his thoughts upon his lessons. Music, either vocal or instrumental, or current history being some of the most approved methods for morning exercise, in addition to devotional services.

"The Daily Program" was then taken up and discussed by Dr. O. H. Swango and others who maintained that it is very necessary to have a daily outline of work which should be as strictly adhered to as circumstances will admit.

"Independent and Correlated Branches," was discussed by Prof. Cord who advocates combining as many branches as possible in order to both emphasize and lighten the work of teacher.

"Special Exercises" was then taken up and commented upon by various teachers, "review work for Fridays" being a feature that all agreed upon.

The New Book Question proved the success and wisdom of the new adoption by the indorsement of every teacher present.

"The Relation of Teacher to Pupil in the School Room, on the Play Ground and in the Community," was fully explained by Prof. Cisco, Miss Davenport and others.

After reading the report of the committee, composed of Mrs. Alice Amyx, S. H. Nickell and Sam Kash, upon obituary, the association then adjourned.

Wm. H. Cord, Vice Pres. Mrs. ALICE AMYX, Sec'y.

At a meeting of the teachers of four of the magisterial districts, in Hazel Green, on October 26, 1901, the following was unanimously voted.

IN MEMORIAM.

As we meet again in the capacity of teachers and friends, we miss one from our midst, who was ever an acknowledged leader, and seemingly an indispensable character in the ranks of our profession. It is with hearts full of sorrow that we pay this tribute to the dead, whose beautiful life shines with such a glorious intensity that we feel its presence, though it is now in the realm of the redeemer.

In the death of our beloved Secretary, Mrs. Minnie Day James, we lose a fellow-teacher whose prominence in life, whose social standing, and whose moral influence are surpassed by none. The face that ever brightened at our greeting and the voice that fell as gentle music upon our ears, no longer brighten our pathway or cheer us in our despondency. Ever ready to respond to the call of duty, and ever willing to assist in all things needful, we mourn for her whose place can not be filled.

Be it resolved, That a copy of this memorial be published in the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, and a copy be presented to the family of the deceased.

S. H. NICKELL, S. K. KASH, Mrs. ALICE AMYX, } Committee.

Arthur Foley Winnington-Ingram, Lord Bishop of London, contributes an interesting paper to the November Cosmopolitan on "The Overcrowding of Great Cities and Remedies for it." Apropos of the discussion of the invasion of England by Americans, Edmund Gosse furnishes in the same number an essay scoring Englishmen for their narrowness of intellect. Incidentally he has a hit at American intellectual life in the twentieth century.

Lewis Ockerman, Goshen, Ind.: DeWitt's Little Early Risers never bend me double like other pills, but do their work thoroughly and make me feel like a boy. "Certain thorough, gentle."
H. F. PIERATT.

The work of quarrying the rock for the academy foundation is about done, and the brick will have been burned by the time the foundation is ready, so that we confidently expect to see the brick masons at work upon the academy soon.

WANTED—Immediately, a girl to cook, wash and iron for small family; no cow to milk nor children to nurse. Apply at HERALD OFFICE.

Miss Nettie Byrd, daughter of Geo. Byrd of Lacy creek, died on Saturday morning at sunrise of pneumonia, as a sequela of relapsing scarlet fever. She was about 16 years of age and was a lovable, christian girl. She was buried at Bethel graveyard on Sunday afternoon.

Mother's Worm Syrup.
Best worm medicine. Children like it so well they eat it on bread.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearly on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are diligent in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Ellis Johnson and wife of Lacy creek, were driving in this section Sunday.

While at the quarterly meeting Sunday, we saw James Cecil and wife of Ezel.

Robert Cecil of Stillwater took in the quarterly meeting Sunday, and staid over night with his sister, Mrs. Harrison Swango.

Edward Oney passed through here Monday en route to Hazel Green and while there took up his abode with H. F. Pieratt. Guess he will make a good clerk.

J. W. Taulbee, our next county school superintendent, who has been out canvassing came home Saturday in high glee over his future prospects. We say "amen."

Grant Lacy, whose illness has been mentioned in THE HERALD from time to time is improving nicely. Grant has wrestled with a "big man" and was a little stronger than his many friends thought.

Only a few days ago we had the worst case of the blues that we ever had in our life; indeed they had almost become chronic. But the return of our brother, who has been in Oklahoma for some time, caused them to pass off like "dew before the sun." And now we are one of the happiest children you ever saw.

While attending the teachers' association Friday in Hazel Green, we noticed the following teachers, and most of them our old school-mates: Faley Long, Ova Swango, Hazel Green; Stella Hurst, Stillwater; Birtha Sample, Lacy creek; Mrs. Tom Amyx, Sam H. Nickell, James Dunn, Sam Kash, Red River; Asa Rose, Lee City; Logan Shockey, Daysboro. We enjoyed their presence.

The Rev. C. F. Oney, our presiding elder, visited this place Monday, and in company with Bro. Greening, left in the afternoon for Pinhook, for the purpose of establishing a church at that place. It had been some four years since we had seen our cousin, and he said we had outgrown his knowledge, but he has grown about as fast as we have, but that didn't keep him from subscribing for THE HERALD.

Oct. 29. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

CAMPTON BRIEFS.

Isaac Elkins of Lane, Ky., visited town Sunday.

Frank Horton of Bear Pen was calling on his best girl here Sunday.

Miss Emma Hollon is suffering very severely with a felon on her finger.

Lee Congleton of Torrent visited relatives and friends at this place Sunday.

Several people from this place attended meeting on Cave branch Sunday.

The little daughter of Thomas Netherly of near town died of fever Thursday night.

Mrs. J. T. Hanks visited her father at Pomeroyton Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Bertie Catron, nee Hanks, of Pomeroyton, is visiting her parents at this place this week.

Max Echeovetch, a former clerk at the Jew store, has resumed his place at the same old stand again.

Rev. Bedinger, the new pastor for this place, arrived this week and preached an able discourse Sunday night.

A. B. Cox seems to have the "blues" since the separation of he and his chum. Butler, why should you grieve over things of this world?

Several of the nominees, both democrats and republicans, were mixing with the people here Saturday. "Gee! but they looked hungry."

The appraisers of the property of the late J. G. Taulbee, deceased, were J. H. Stamper, jr., Jack Hollon and Courtney Combs. They wound up the business Saturday. Oct. 29. Goo-Goo EYES.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MIZE MITES.
Bruce McKinney and wife were visiting in Menefee last week.

Uncle Pete Little and wife are spending a few days on Gillmore.

Mrs. Bettie Rose, reported as very sick sometime ago, is improving.

S. S. Rose and daughter, Miss Linnie, of Campton, were visiting J. W. Cecil's family Sunday.

James Little has sold his farm to Lilburn Graham for $1,200. Little is to give possession in ten days.

Miss Evelyn Rasnick and brother Oscar of Salem were visiting on this creek Saturday and Sunday.

What makes more noise than a goose? The twelve hundred geese that E. H. Oldfield has in his barn lot.
Oct. 29. FINNEY.

LETCHER COUNTY.

MAYKING.

Candidates have begun to hustle through all parts of the county.

Born, to Lethia J., wife of E. M. Webb, a big bouncing girl. It weighed ten pounds.

The public school building here is now being finished for the use of the present term of school.

Died, on Tuesday, Sept. 10, 1901, Lillie May, daughter of Benjamin P. and Lottie Webb, aged about 2 years.

Byrd Isom, republican nominee for assessor was here yesterday shaking hands with friends and giving an occasional treat.

Rev. C. C. Craft left last week for his home in Magoffin county after making a week's preaching tour through this county.

W. W. Sergeant, representing a Lynchburg dry goods house, was calling on our merchants yesterday. Willie always sells goods.

William Morgan of Frisco, Okla., is here with friends after an extended absence. He will leave Monday for his home in the far west.

Aunt Polly Williams, one of Pert creek's oldest people, has been nearing death's door for some time. We hope she will recover, however.

More than 100 of our people have gone to Pineville, Bell county, where they are witnesses in the John and Noah Reynolds case for the murder of Hon. W. S. Wright at Boon's fork in January, 1900, which was transferred to Bell on a change of venue last February. John Reynolds has four murder cases against him, although he is barely twenty.
Oct. 29. BURDINE.

WHISKEY
HALF PRICE
$1.10 PER GALLON
We claim to be the lowest priced whiskey house. We really sell whiskey as low as $1.10 per gallon, and mind you—distilled whiskey—not a drop of chemicals—but of course it is new and under proof. Our "Mountain Dew" 3 year old whiskey is a liquid joy! It is actually produced by honest Irishmen in the Mountains of N. C. It is in old style copper stills, in exactly the same way as distilled by our grandfathers a century ago. First rate whiskey is sold at $5 and $6 per gallon, but is not any better than "Mountain Dew." It is the best in the world and must be tried to be appreciated. National Bank of Washington, N. C., will tell you our guarantee is good. To more fully introduce "Mountain Dew," we offer either three or five gallon (in plain sealed boxes) at the special price of $15.00 per gallon, each with order. The special price, $3.00 per gallon. Express prepaid to all regular customers. We have branch warehouses in Denver, St. Louis, and Cincinnati, but all orders and remittances (in money, bank or by check, etc.) as well as requests for circulars and samples, must be addressed as follows:
S. C. CASPER CO., Winston-Salem, N. C., U. S. A.

+ THE ARENA +
Under the editorial management of Chas. Brodie Patterson, B. O. Flower and John Emery McLean.

THE COMING AGE has been merged into the ARENA, and B. O. Flower, who founded and built up the ARENA, has returned to its editorial department, in which work he is associated with Mr. Charles Brodie Patterson, President of the Alliance School of Applied Metaphysics, author of a number of leading works devoted to the New Thought, and one of the most advanced philosophical thinkers of the times, and Mr. John Emery McLean, who for the last two years has been the working editor of the ARENA, and is now associated with Mr. Patterson in the editing of MIND. This able editorial staff is assisted by the strongest and most authoritative thinkers in the New World, who from month to month contribute their best thoughts to the review which for many years has occupied a foremost position in the very vanguard of the great authoritative magazines of the English speaking world. It is the determination of the present management to restore the ARENA to its old prestige and make it absolutely indispensable to all wide awake and progressive people. Here is a list of a few contributors to early issues. They are sufficient to indicate the authoritative character of the ARENA under its new editorial management:

Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, LL.D.
Dr. R. Osgood Mason.
Rev. R. Heber Newton, D.D.

SPECIAL FEATURES.
ORIGINAL ESSAYS, constituting a Senate of Progress, in which the great living issues of the time are ably and fairly discussed.
SYMPOSIUM, giving master thoughts of representative thinkers on all sides of questions that are prominently before the public.

CONVERSATIONS with the leading thinkers on live topics. This most popular feature of the COMING AGE has been introduced into the ARENA. Most of these Conversations are preceded by a brief biographical sketch of the famous person who discusses the theme in hand.

ON THE STOA OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY, a brilliant and attractive feature containing brief questions and pertinent answers on leading social, economic, and educational problems.

BIOGRAPHIC SKETCHES and Pen Pictures of the Great Ones who have helped the world onward.

EDITORIALS on Topics of the Times, by B. C. Flower.

BOOKS OF THE DAY, reviewed by Mr. Flower.

FICTION, of the choicest quality, from the pens of the cleverest story writers of the time.

The ARENA, even taken separately, is the cheapest or the great original authoritative reviews published in America. In combination with THE HERALD its actual cost is only $1.50.

A WORD ABOUT "MIND."

The magazine, MIND, is a large and handsome monthly review, edited by John Emery McLean and Charles Brodie Patterson (with whom Mr. Flower is associated in editing the ARENA), and devoted to the New Thought, embracing Practical Metaphysics, Physical Science, the New Psychology, Occultism, etc. Among its contributors are such writers of international reputation as the Rev. R. Heber Newton, the Hon. Boyd Winchester, LL.D., Prof. George D. Herron, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. At druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. A sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Startling Facts About Sugar.

As a good deal has recently appeared in print regarding the consumption of sugar, and as the importance of this article as a food, in which every individual is concerned, is apparently not sufficiently understood, the following facts and figures furnished to us by the well-known sugar statisticians, Messrs. Willett and Gray 91 Wall Street, New York, who are the publishers of the weekly Statistical Sugar Trade Journal, must necessarily be of great interest to all our readers:

RAW SUGAR.
Tons.
Total consumption, U. S., 1900 (Willett & Gray).....	2,219,847
Add 6.34 per cent., average annual increase in consumption last 19 years.....	140,738
Consumption for 1901, 2,360,585
Of which:
Louisiana's production, 350,000
Beet (dom.) production, 150,000
Hawaii (U. S.) production, 350,000
Porto Rico (U. S.) production, 150,000
Foreign production, 1,500,000
Paying duty at an average of 36¢ per ton.....	$84,981,000
(Equivalent to $40 per ton in Granulated)
(Price increased because of tariff, 36¢ per ton)
Total consumption, 2,360,585 tons at 36¢.....	$84,981,000
Additional, people taxed annually and pay to provide 49 millions for revenue.....	$36,000,000
Viz.:
To Louisiana planters on 350,000 tons at 36¢ per ton.....	$12,600,000
To domestic beet planters on 150,000 tons at 36¢ per ton.....	5,400,000
To Hawaii planters on 350,000 tons at 36¢ per ton.....	12,600,000
To Porto Rico planters on 150,000 tons at 36¢ per ton.....	5,400,000
	$36,000,000

Remove duty and the whole $84,981,000 accrue to the public. On October 8, the quotation for Cuba Centrifugal sugar, 96 per cent. test, free on board Cuba, was 1.96 cents per pound, and the duty on same amounted to 1.685 cents per pound, which is equivalent to 86 per cent. ad valorem.

Is Your Life Worth 25 Cents?

Consumptives, we know that you have been disappointed many times but make one more effort to be cured. Gooch's Mexican Syrup has cured thousands and it will cure you. Consumption is the result of the food material that should go to support the body and sustain life being absorbed and thrown off in tuberculous matter. To overcome this waste of vital force and restore the nourishment to the system in its natural course, is to cure. This is accomplished by Gooch's Mexican Syrup. It controls coughs, night sweats, spitting of blood, soreness in chest, inflamed throat and lungs, difficult breathing, heavy coughs accompanied with expectoration, and parched lips. We know you have been disappointed many times, but make one more effort to save yourself. You can buy a bottle of Gooch's Mexican Syrup for 25 cts. It cures a simple cough as if by magic, and is the best remedy for whooping cough.

Damages Allowed Against Road.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDeis, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others, I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure; one bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly I put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, indigestion had made him a total wreck."

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate courses of study are also provided, leading each to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than thirty professors and instructors. County Appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The last Legislature appropriated $30,000 for a college home for young women, and a drill hall and gymnasium has been provided for men. Military tactics and science are fully provided for and required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply.

Last year the matriculation list was 629. For catalogues, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to JAMES K. PATTERSON, Ph. D., LL. D., President, or to Prof. D. C. FRAZEE, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky. Fall Term begins September 10th, 1901.

IT CURES WHEN ALL ELSE FAILS!

ROAD THE TESTIMONY OF TWO WELL KNOWN CITIZENS OF WOLFE.

Mr. Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.:

I purchased some of the Vitae-Ore of you in the latter part of March, and after taking about a half-pint of the Vitae-Ore Elixir my nerves were as steady as when I was 16 years of age, and I am now past 75. For more than a year I had been trying all the patent medicines and nostrums I could hear of to build myself up, but nothing did me any good until I used Vitae-Ore, which my wife brought me from your house. After using it a week I went out and did three days' as hard work as I have done in 25 years, and I was not more fatigued than I was 25 years ago over the same work. It is the greatest medicine in the world, and I want everybody in the mountains to know what it did for me so they may try it. Hoping every one who has that tired feeling incident to old age will buy Vitae-Ore of you and give it a fair trial, I remain, thankfully yours for putting me on to this remedy.

JAMES LACY.

I can vouch for every word Mr. Lacy says in the above. I am his wife and bought the medicine of Mr. Cooper for him, though I did not have much faith in it, because we had tried so many things that did no good. I have also used Vitae-Ore, and am stronger and in better health than for years, which I attribute to its use.

(MRS.) SOUTHEY LACY. Lacy Creek, Ky., June 1, 1901.
